Mitchison Court is an Extra Care scheme situated in Sunbury-on-Thames, Surrey.

The scheme enables residents to live independently with access to 24/7 on-site care and support for people over the age of 55. Residents can also choose to make use of the communal lounge to socialise with other residents. There is also a hair salon (by appointment only). There are 39 one- and two-bedroom apartments available for residents.

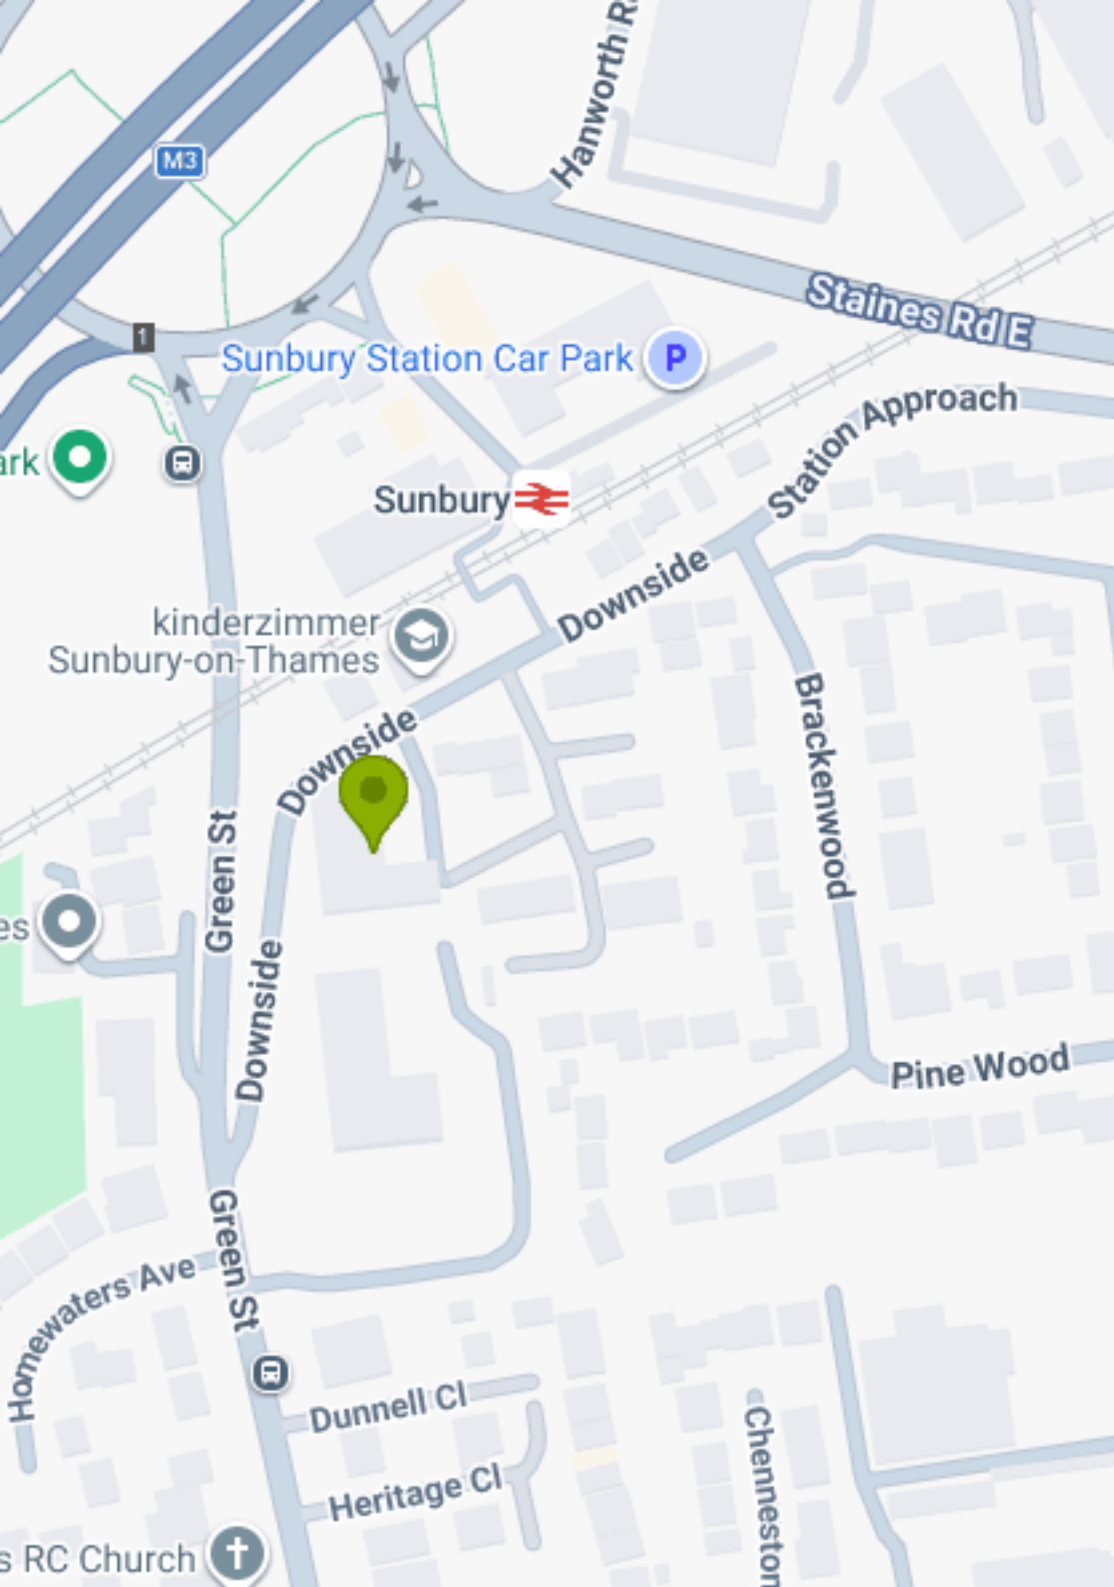

Living in Extra Care means you continue to live independently in your new home, exactly as you do now, but with the peace of mind that having help on hands brings. You have your own front door and letterbox; can have friends and family to visit (without asking permission) and you can bring your pets with you too. You may currently be living as a couple where only one of you requires care. Choosing to live in one of our Extra Care schemes can enable you to continue living together with support from Care Workers, ensuring you can concentrate on enjoying your time together, unlike in a care home, where you would need to live separately.

About us

We are a leading provider of safe, quality and affordable properties for older people, empowering you to live independently with on-site care or support. We manage over 24,000 properties and provide over 48,000 hours of in-house care every week.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
