Inglis Court

Inglis Court, Pecklewell Lane, , MARYPORT , CA15 7AU

Welcome

Inglis Court is a friendly scheme in the small village of Ellenborough just outside Maryport. The village, which sits on the Solway Firth, enjoys the mountains of Scotland as its backdrop.

Maryport town centre is just a mile from the court and has a long seafaring history, and holds an annual trawler race for local fishermen. The town retains a small fishing fleet with fresh fish available daily on the harbourside. Next to the harbour is the town's promenade which offers views of the Scottish hills and the marina.

The town has a range of attractions including indoor go-karts, an aquarium, maritime museum and a Roman museum where digs are carried out. The annual Blues Festival is visited by people from all over the world.

Ellenborough is six miles from the historic market town of Cockermouth and seven miles from Workington, which has a multi-screen cinema. The Lake District is half an hour's drive away.

About us

We are a leading provider of safe, quality and affordable properties for older people, empowering you to live independently with on-site care or support. We manage over 24,000 properties and provide over 48,000 hours of in-house care every week.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
