Frederick Smith Court

Frederick Smith Court, Brookside, Hodge Lea, MILTON KEYNES , MK12 6JR

Welcome

Frederick Smith Court is a lively scheme in Hodge Lea, a quiet estate just four miles from the centre of Milton Keynes. The area is well-established and has excellent public transport links to the whole of Milton Keynes and the surrounding areas.

Opposite the court is a small convenience store and there are several independent shops in nearby Wolverton, including a baker, ironmonger, clothes shop, charity shop, newsagent, butcher, greengrocer and tea room.

There is plenty for residents to do in Wolverton, with a regular market, theatre, bowling club, craft fairs and several music and arts festivals at Campbell Park and Willen Lake.

Wolverton also has its own bowling club that meets several times each week and a new leisure centre with a gym and swimming pool. Nearby Milton Keynes boasts two theatres and a cinema complex.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
