Stanbridge House

Stanbridge House, Ruskin Road, , BANBURY , OX16 9FZ

Welcome

Stanbridge House is located in the peaceful Easington area of Banbury in Oxfordshire, enjoying good transport links and easy access to a range of local amenities.

Banbury is a lively and attractive town where there is always something going on. The town holds weekly markets and there is a variety of events including the popular annual canal day, the Hobby Horse Festival and the Banbury Town Show.

The town centre is just a five-minute drive or bus ride away and there is also a good range of local amenities within walking distance of the court. Independent shops and a church are located opposite and there is a newsagent, pub, hairdresser, post office and two pleasant parks just a five-minute walk away. There are several large supermarkets, just a short drive from the court.

The scheme has extensive and attractive landscaped gardens which attract a variety of wildlife including frogs, squirrels, bats and crows. There is an allotment area which residents are welcome to tend if they choose. There is also a pleasant patio where residents can relax and enjoy the warmer weather.

About us

We are a leading provider of safe, quality and affordable properties for older people, empowering you to live independently with on-site care or support. We manage over 24,000 properties and provide over 48,000 hours of in-house care every week.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
