

Welcome

Albuhera Close is situated in a quiet cul-de-sac close to the Ridgeway end of the lively town of Enfield.

The court is proud of its attractive and well-maintained gardens and has won a Gold award in the prestigious 'Enfield in Bloom' competition. The residents take an active role in helping to take care of the gardens and are encouraged to join in with planting if they choose.

There is an attractive park that holds many community events. There are also several doctors' surgeries, opticians and places of worship nearby.

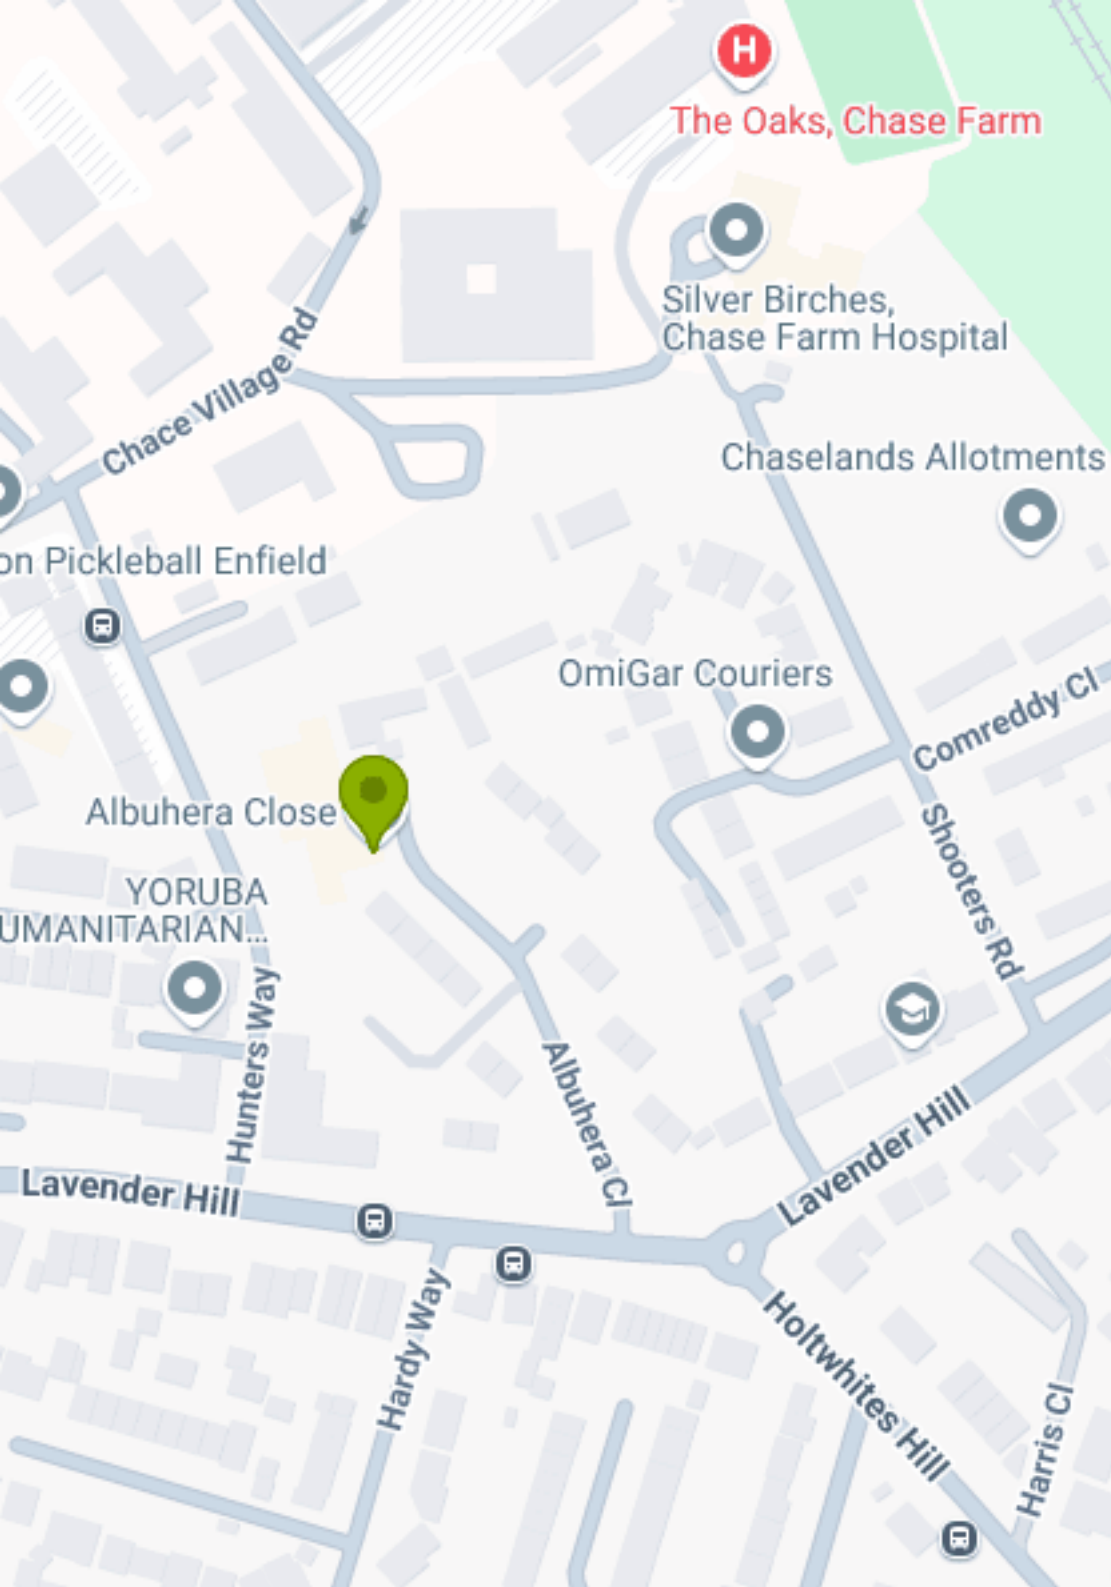

The court is close to the Forty Hall estate, a Grade I listed Jacobean Manor House with extensive gardens, ancient parkland, lakes and watercourse. The estate hosts regular events catering for a variety of interests. A short ride on one of the frequent bus services provides residents with easy access to a cinema and sports centres.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
