Welcome

Anne Figg Court enjoys a convenient location just 5 minutes' walk from the centre of the historic Medway town of Rochester.

Rochester is a popular place to live, combining good transport links to central London with the coast just an hour's drive away.

The attractive town, with the River Medway running through its centre, has lots of green areas for walking and picnicking. Local historic attractions include a Norman castle and medieval cathedral, with regular fairs and markets held in the castle grounds. The Sweeps Festival and Dickens Festival are among local events held throughout the year. Shopping centres and several large supermarkets in nearby Chatham and Strood offer plenty of convenience in addition to local newsagents, takeaways, and pubs.

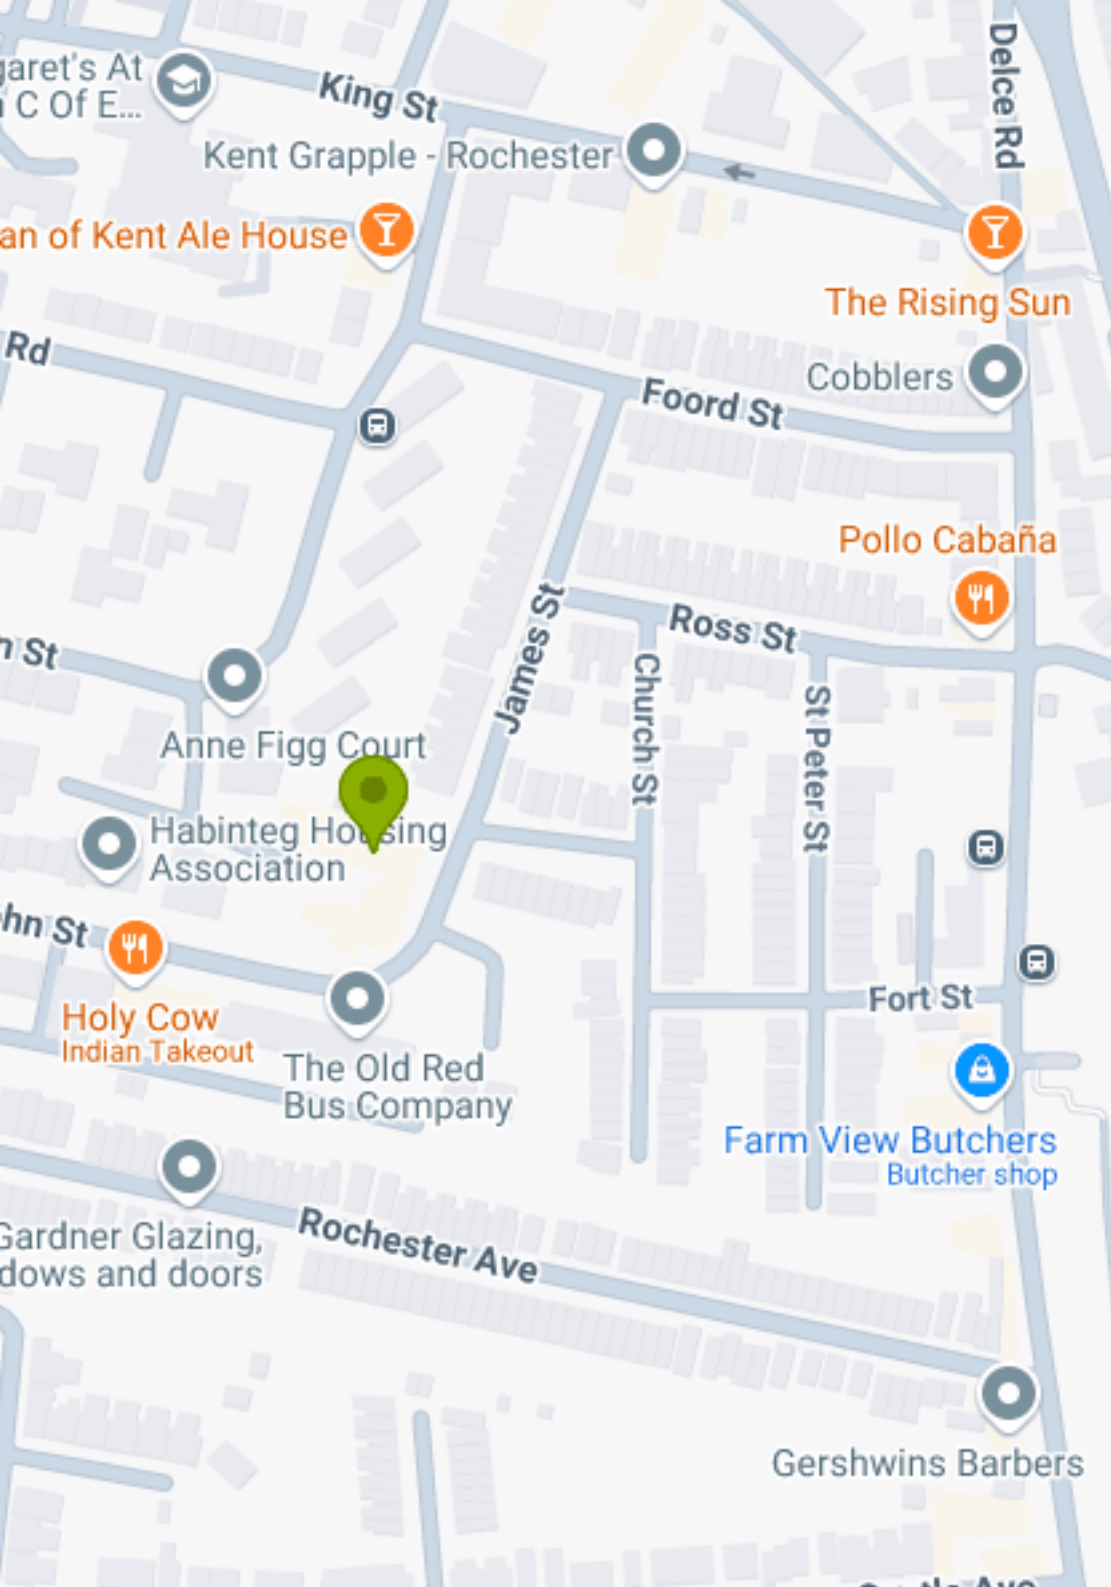

Buses run regularly into Rochester, Chatham and Strood from stops within walking distance of the court. Rochester train station is a major commuters' station and provides good connections to the wider region and beyond.

About us

Housing 21 is a leading, not for profit provider of Extra Care and Retirement Living for older people of modest means. We manage over 24, 000 properties and providing over 49, 000 hours of social care each week.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
