

Welcome

Peacefully situated Barker Court is just half a mile from Bacup town centre and offers easy access to larger shopping areas such as Rawtenstall, Rochdale and Burnley.

There are well-maintained gardens to the front and rear of the building, with pleasant seating areas where residents can relax and watch the birds, foxes and squirrels that visit the court. Residents are welcome to get involved in the garden and some have their own areas and bird feeders to tend to.

The court is set in attractive surroundings with scenic views of the Lancashire hills and countryside. There is plenty to do in Bacup, with the town hosting its famous Britannia Coconutters parade each Easter, a small market twice a week and a popular flea market on Fridays.

Bacup also has a local theatre, leisure centre with a gym and swimming pool, and several pubs, restaurants and cafés.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
