

Welcome

Charles Busby Court is situated in the Royal British Legion village in Aylesford, near Maidstone, with several parks and river walks nearby.

The court, which comprises 40 flats, is situated in a quiet location but is in easy reach of Maidstone, Rochester and Canterbury.

Charles Busby Court is set in large communal gardens, and residents are welcome to contribute with planting in pots on their patio areas. The court has a communal lounge, a hairdressers, a well-equipped laundry room and a guest room for use by visiting family and friends. A court manager is on hand to provide help and support to residents.

Maidstone also has the Hazlitt Theatre, and hosts a weekly market and an annual County Show. There is also Mote Park Leisure Centre in close proximity of the court, set in a park with lakes and attractive walks.

About us

Housing 21 is a leading, not for profit provider of Extra Care and Retirement Living for older people of modest means. We manage over 24, 000 properties and providing over 49, 000 hours of social care each week.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
