

Welcome

Cunningham Court is a welcoming scheme in the coastal village of Hunstanton in Norfolk, located close to Sandringham and King's Lynn. The beach is 20 minutes' walk or a short bus ride from the court.

Buses run every 20 minutes from a stop just five minutes' walk from the court and will take you into Hunstanton and King's Lynn. The nearest train station is in King's Lynn, giving access to the wider region and further afield. There are several local taxi companies in the village.

Cunningham Court has a range of onsite facilities for residents including two communal lounges, a laundry, guest room and lift.

The court has attractive and well-maintained gardens with pleasant seating areas where residents can relax and enjoy the warmer weather. Green-fingered residents are welcome to get involved with the gardening if they choose. The gardens attract a variety of wildlife.

About us

Housing 21 is a leading, not for profit provider of Extra Care and Retirement Living for older people of modest means. We manage over 24, 000 properties and providing over 49, 000 hours of social care each week.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
