

Welcome

Located on a quiet road in the pleasant south-east London district of Belvedere, David Coffe Court offers convenient independent living in a suburban setting.

Residents enjoy many on-site features at David Coffe Court, including a fully modernized communal lounge, kitchen and laundry. Each apartment has a fitted kitchen and walk-in shower for your convenience. The development also benefits from a peaceful communal garden with a patio area, offering excellent panoramic views over London.

Close to Bexleyheath, Erith and Woolwich, Belvedere also has good transport links to central London and Kent. Bus stops are located a five-minute walk away with buses running every 10 minutes, while Belvedere train station is a 10 minute walk. An excellent Dial a Ride service is also available.

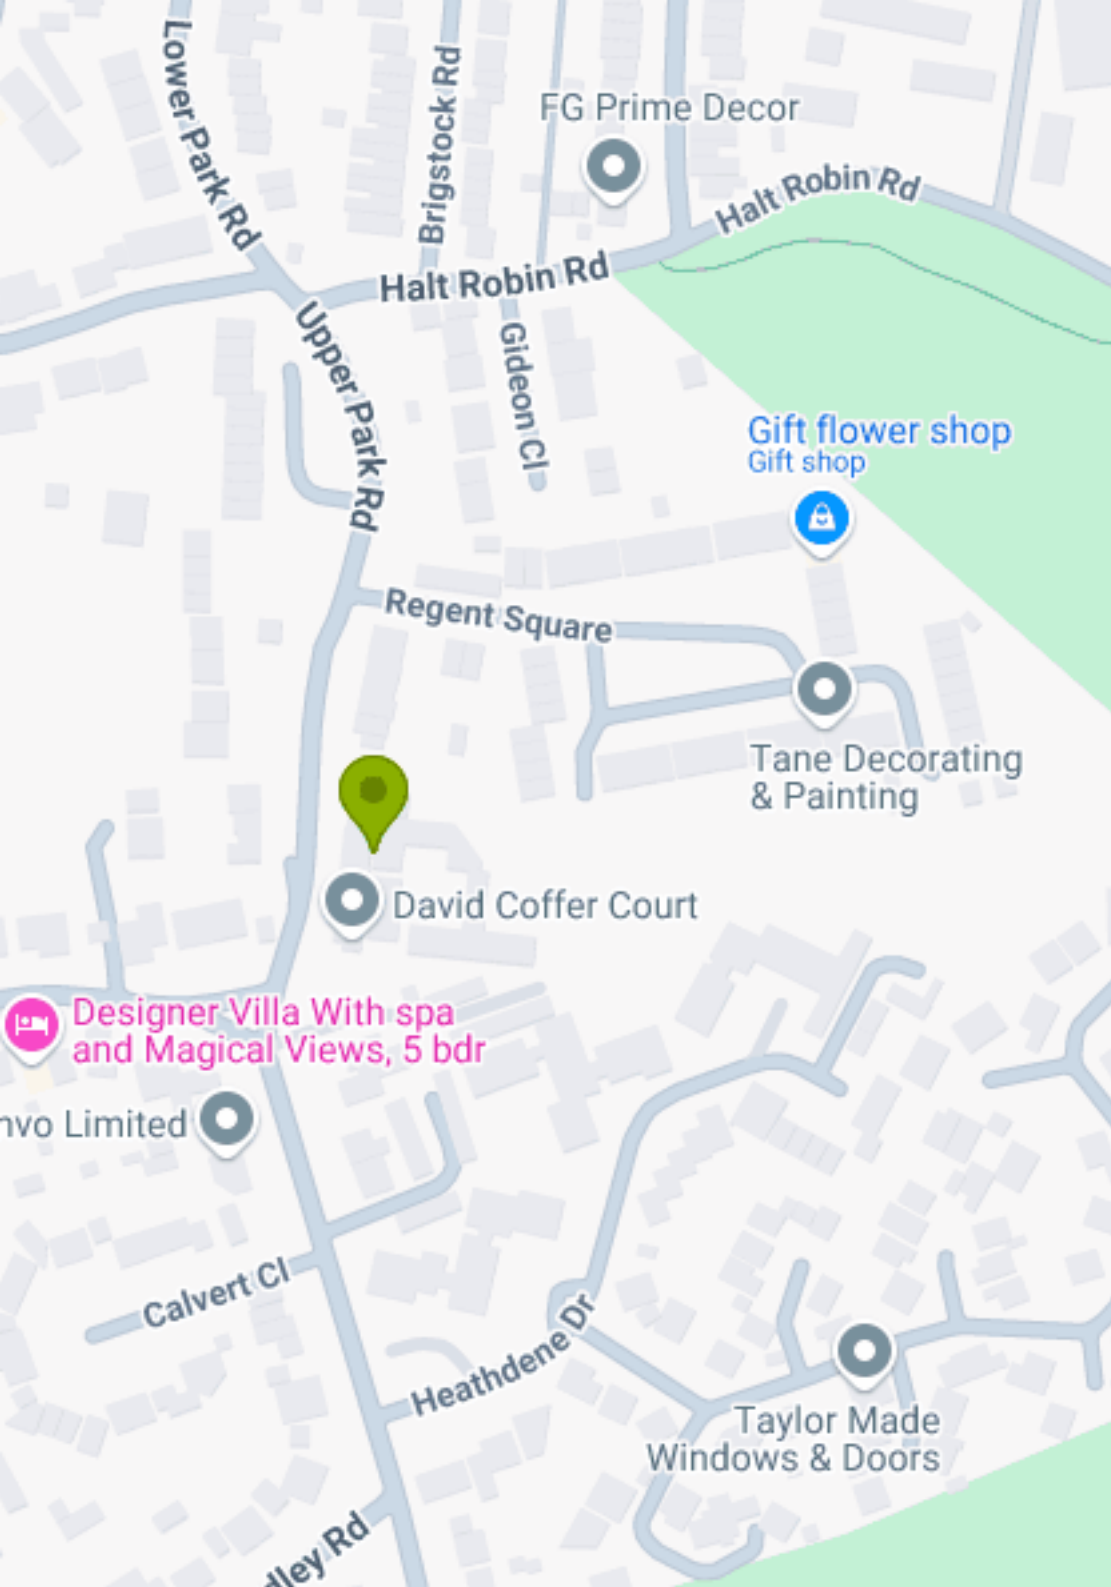

David Coffe Court is ideally placed for various leisure facilities, with several allotments, large parks and recreation grounds within easy reach. Regular festivals are held in Danson Park, and an annual regatta takes place in Erith.

About us

Housing 21 is a leading, not for profit provider of Extra Care and Retirement Living for older people of modest means. We manage over 24, 000 properties and providing over 49, 000 hours of social care each week.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
