Goode Court

Goode Court, Bream Road, , LYDNEY , GL15 5JP

Welcome

The friendly scheme of Goode Court, in the small town of Lydney in Gloucestershire, is a short drive from the natural beauty of the Forest of Dean and the Wye Valley.

The court is within walking distance of Lydney town centre and its ample leisure and sporting facilities, including an indoor swimming pool, rugby and bowls club. There is a community centre where various clubs and associations meet. The town hall, just 10 minutes' walk away from the court, holds frequent entertainments including plays and musical evenings.

The town also has a harbour on the River Severn, a beautiful public park and boating lake.

The area has good transport links to other areas in the Forest Of Dean and the nearby city of Gloucester. Local bus services run to Chepstow or Coleford from a bus stop directly opposite the court and there is a train station just over a mile away. A reliable dial-a-ride service operates in the town and there are volunteer car services, local minibuses and taxi firms to help residents get around.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
