

Welcome

Gordon Roughley Court is situated in a quiet cul-de sac in the historic market town of Rayleigh in Essex. Located in a pleasant residential area, the court is close to a range of local facilities.

There is plenty to do in the area, with a golf club on the outskirts of town, Rayleigh Bowls Club, two cricket clubs and the Masters Performing Arts College, one of the leading colleges in the country for musical theatre. The area is also of particular archaeological interest, with finds dating back to the prehistoric and Roman eras.

Nearby Southend on Sea, Rayleigh Mill and Leigh-on-Sea all have their own theatres, and can be reached by bus from a stop just a short walk from the court. The nearest train station can be found in Rayleigh and there are local taxis that service the court.

About us

Housing 21 is a leading, not for profit provider of Extra Care and Retirement Living for older people of modest means. We manage over 24, 000 properties and providing over 49, 000 hours of social care each week.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
