Welcome

Harry Whitehead Court is a sociable scheme with a welcoming atmosphere, situated in a pleasant and peaceful area of Walmersley, just outside Bury.

The court is only a short bus ride away from the famous Bury market, which is open four days a week, and Clarence Park, which offers many pleasant walks. The town's lido and Age UK centre are also within easy reach.

There is a local supermarket just across the road from the court and a post office, fish and chip shop and chemist in a small precinct a few minutes away. The Jubilee Centre is nearby and is a popular place for residents to enjoy lunch. A large supermarket is just a short bus ride away.

Regular trams and buses run from the Bury Interchange into Manchester, Ashton under Lyne, Rochdale and Ramsbottom. A weekly dial-a-ride service is available to take residents shopping or to appointments.

About us

Housing 21 is a leading, not for profit provider of Extra Care and Retirement Living for older people of modest means. We manage over 24, 000 properties and providing over 49, 000 hours of social care each week.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
