

Welcome

Jellicoe Court is located in a quiet and established residential area of Scunthorpe, North Lincolnshire, and offers easy access to a range of local amenities.

Scunthorpe town centre is a short bus ride away and has a daily market, while nearby Ashby has a weekly market. The high street boasts a good range of shops, banks and places to eat and drink.

There is plenty to do in the town, with a multi-screen cinema and two theatres which attract big name acts as well as local amateur groups. The house and grounds of nearby Normanby Hall, the home of the Sheffield family, is open to the public all year round. A leisure centre, numerous excellent restaurants and pubs are also located in the town. The court is just over half an hour from the seaside town of Cleethorpes.

Buses run every 20 minutes from a stop near the court and will take you to Scunthorpe in one direction and Ashby in the other. The railway station is five minutes away by car or 10 minutes by bus and offers links to towns in the surrounding area. Age UK also runs a low-charge bus to the supermarket once a fortnight.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
