

Welcome

Reginald Mitchell Court is situated on the outskirts of Eastleigh town centre, just a few miles from the wealth of shopping and leisure facilities offered by the larger cities of Winchester and Southampton.

Eastleigh is a bustling town with a regular market. There is plenty for residents to enjoy in the town, including a wide range of shops, pubs, social clubs, restaurants, a cinema, bowling alley and theatre. There is also a leisure centre half a mile from the court.

There is a good range of amenities within easy reach, including several shops, a small supermarket, pub, doctors surgery, dentist, post office, chemist, hairdresser, café and takeaway. Several larger supermarkets are just a short drive or bus ride away.

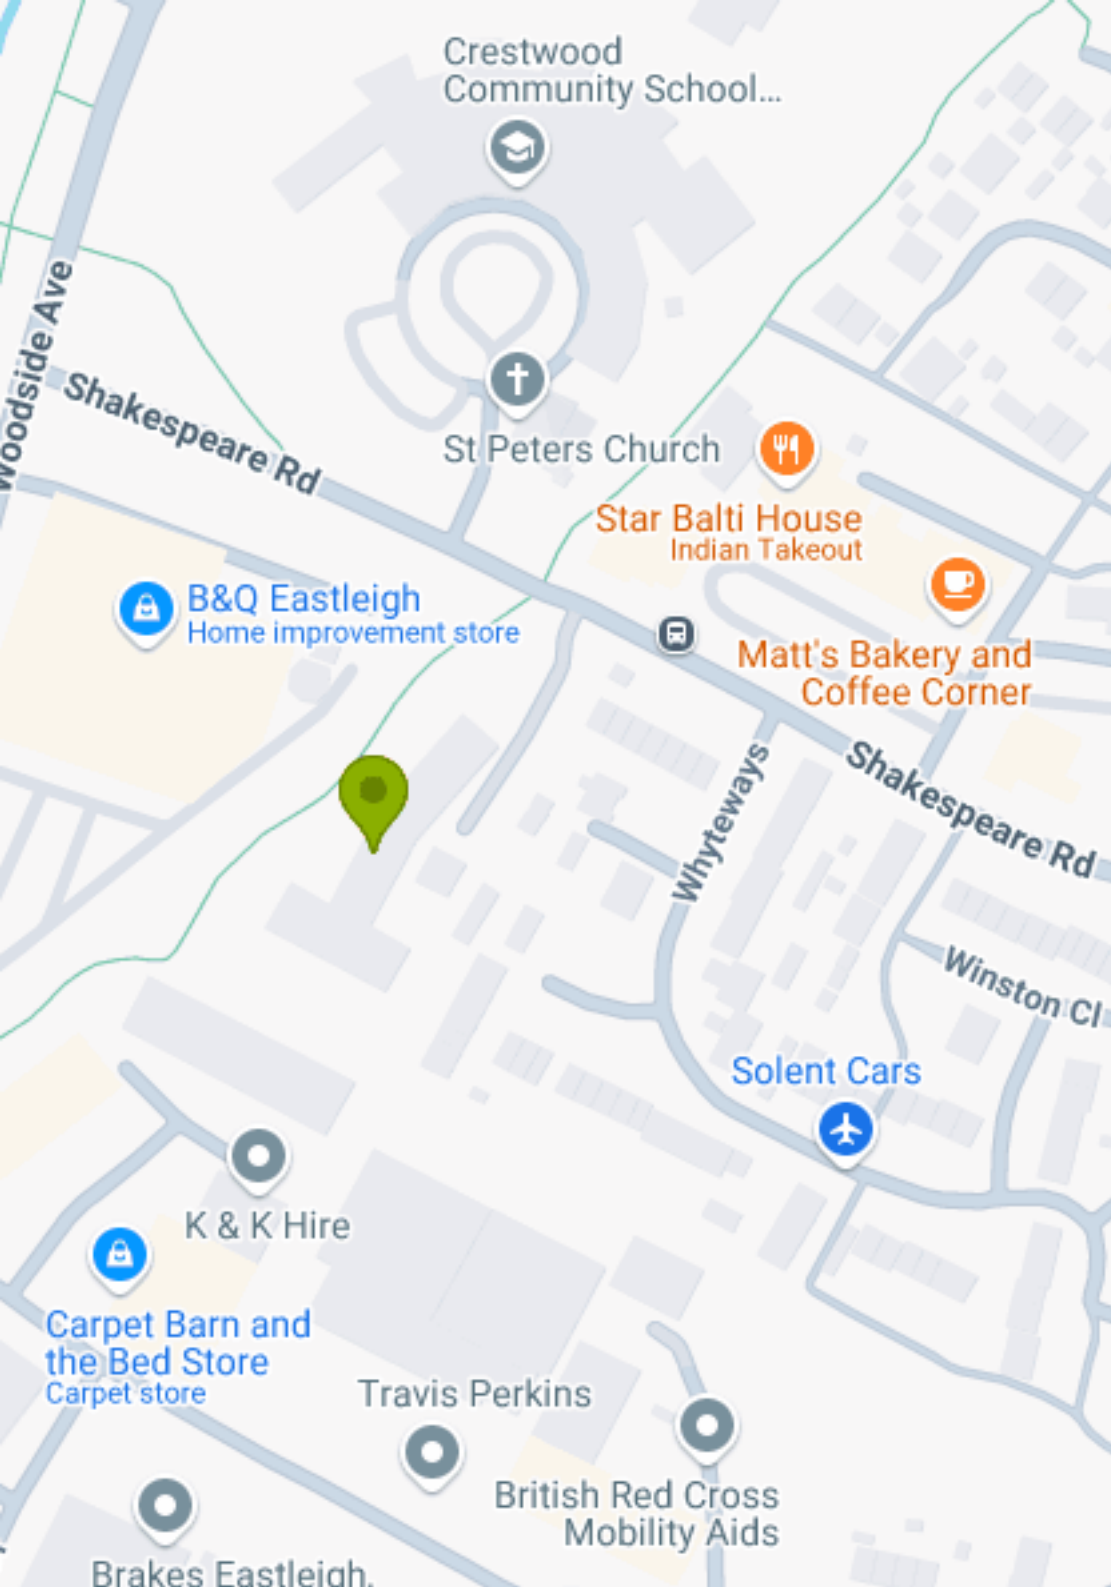

The area enjoys good transport links with a bus stop outside the court offering regular services to Eastleigh and nearby Winchester. Eastleigh has its own bus station and train station, offering connections to the wider Hampshire area and further afield. A dial-a-ride service and community bus are also available to take residents shopping or to appointments.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
