Sir Robert Martin Court

Sir Robert Martin Court, , LOUGHBOROUGH , LE11 4LW

Welcome

The bright and spacious communal lounge at this friendly court is the venue for the many and varied social activities, there are two weekly bingo sessions in the afternoon and one monthly session in an evening. The local students from Loughborough University visit the scheme during term times and play Scrabble and other games with the residents. We have tea and toast for all on a Monday and a soup kitchen, there's a monthly quiz and sticky 13, Knit and Knatter club, seated exercise classes and many social evenings with live music and a spot of dancing.

We also have lovely communal gardens for you to enjoy and a new greenhouse project starting.

About us

Housing 21 is a leading, not for profit provider of Extra Care and Retirement Living for older people of modest means. We manage over 24, 000 properties and providing over 49, 000 hours of social care each week.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
