Welcome

Weld Court is a peaceful development situated within an easy walking distance of the centre of Dorchester, overlooking the town's Borough Gardens.

Just a few minutes' walk from the Court there are a range of amenities including a Post Office, doctors surgery, dentist, several churches and high street banks. There are five supermarkets within easy reach of the Court.

Dorchester is well known for its independent stores in the main South Street shopping area and the cosmopolitan Brewery Square, which boasts a good selection of boutique shops and eateries. Dorchester town centre has many pubs and restaurants as well as two cinemas and a new multi-million-pound sports centre.

Nearby Borough Gardens holds regular markets and various events throughout the year. French and farmers' markets are often held in the town's main shopping street.

About us

Housing 21 is a leading, not for profit provider of Extra Care and Retirement Living for older people of modest means. We manage over 24, 000 properties and providing over 49, 000 hours of social care each week.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
