Normanby Court

Normanby Court, Linden Crescent, , MIDDLESBROUGH , TS7 8LE

Welcome

Normanby Court is set in attractive and peaceful surroundings in a quiet area of Marton near Middlesbrough. Marton is an established and mature residential area, pleasantly located near to the coast and the countryside.

There are numerous shopping and leisure facilities close at hand including larger supermarkets, independent shops, a library, post office, dentist, doctor's surgery, banks, pubs, hotels and churches.

Marton was the birthplace of Captain James Cook and the town is home to a museum commemorating his life. Marton also has a large public park and a leisure centre and cinema are within easy driving distance.

Buses run from Marton into Middlesbrough town centre every half an hour from a bus stop a few minutes' walk from the court and take 15 minutes. There is also a train station and a reliable and reasonably priced taxi service which will take you into town or to appointments.

About us

We are a leading provider of safe, quality and affordable properties for older people, empowering you to live independently with on-site care or support. We manage over 24,000 properties and provide over 48,000 hours of in-house care every week.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
