John Barnes Court

John Barnes Court, Englands Road, , PORLOCK , TA24 8QR

Welcome

John Barnes Court is a peaceful and friendly scheme in the village of Porlock, near to the sea on the edge of the Exmoor National Park. The court is close to a good range of local amenities and residents enjoy a high level of independence.

The area is a popular holiday destination with plenty for visitors to do. Minehead is the nearest town, just six miles away, while Taunton is 25 miles away. Minehead hosts a summer festival and Apple Days each year while the Porlock Arts Festival takes place every September. The museum hosts regular talks and plays, and there is an active amateur dramatic society in the village.

Buses run from a stop just outside the court and will take you to the sea or to the surrounding towns. Residents can also choose to book the slinky shopper bus to get around. The nearest train station is in Taunton and provides connections to the wider area.

John Barnes Court has a range of on-site facilities including a communal lounge and laundry room. There are 8 studio apartments, 16 one-bed properties and 1 two-bed property. Some of the flats enjoy sea views

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
