Charles Keightley Court

Charles Keightley Court, Hardy Crescent, , WIMBOURNE , BH21 2TR

Welcome

Charles Keightley Court is a retirement scheme of 24 one-bedroom apartments in a peaceful, semi-rural setting in the popular market town of Wimborne, Dorset.

Charles Keightley Court offers a communal lounge, laundry and a guest room for use by visiting family and friends. A court manager is on hand to provide help and support to residents, and further peace of mind is provided by the 24 hour emergency alarms.

Outside, there are four lawn areas to the front and back of the property, with long flower borders, and plenty of Car parking. The court has a gardening club which works with the court manager and contracted gardener to maintain an attractive garden for all to enjoy. The court is also close to a river walk, for those who enjoy the outdoors.

Close to the court there is a local convenience store and hairdressers, and a short trip away in the town centre you can find supermarkets and a wide range of shops, pubs, cafes and restaurants. Wimborne also hosts a market on Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays.

About us

We are a leading provider of safe, quality and affordable properties for older people, empowering you to live independently with on-site care or support. We manage over 24,000 properties and provide over 48,000 hours of in-house care every week.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
