Victoria Scott Court

Victoria Scott Court, Perry Street, , DARTFORD , DA1 4SH

Welcome

Victoria Scott Court, in Crayford in Greater London, enjoys an attractive location in a listed building surrounded by extensive grounds.

Formerly known as Orchard House, the main building has been sensitively refurbished and is full of Victorian character with high ceilings and original fireplaces.

Crayford town centre has a good range of local pubs, restaurants, doctors' surgeries, a post office, bank and church. A weekly market takes place in Dartford and nearby Bluewater has many shops, bars and restaurants. Barnehurst Golf Club, close to the court, is a pleasant place to practice your game or enjoy a walk.

The bus stop is a short walk from the court and provides regular services to Bluewater and Bexley. Residents can also take advantage of a convenient weekly dial-a-ride service to the shops. There are three train stations near the court, the closest being Slade Green.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
