

Welcome

Fosbrooke Court is situated in a quiet residential area close to the popular coastal city of Plymouth.

Fosbrooke Court is just a mile from a shopping parade which boasts many shops, banks, pubs, cafés and restaurants. A short bus ride takes residents into the city centre, where there is an excellent range of larger supermarkets, major retailers and independent shops. There are several places of worship and a social club nearby.

Plymouth city centre has a long seafaring history and hosts many events and festivals on its waterfront including the annual British Firework Championships. The city also has a good range of museums, galleries, theatres, cinemas, music venues and an arts centre. Plymouth holds regular indoor and farmers' markets.

The local area offers good transport links. The court is a short bus ride from the historic Plymouth Hoe and Barbican, Dartmoor National Park and the market town of Tavistock. Buses into the city centre run every 20 minutes from a stop just opposite the court or there is a dial-a-ride service you can book. Plymouth Railway station is two miles away and provides easy access to towns and cities further afield.

About us

Housing 21 is a leading, not for profit provider of Extra Care and Retirement Living for older people of modest means. We manage over 24, 000 properties and providing over 49, 000 hours of social care each week.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
