George Hill Court, Fancy Walk, STAFFORD, ST16 3BW

Welcome

George Hill Court is a small and attractive scheme in the north end of Stafford. The court is peaceful yet is just a short drive or bus ride from the town centre. A nearby retail park has many high street stores and major retailers, while there are several large supermarkets in and around the town centre.

There is plenty for residents to do in Stafford with a variety of popular attractions including the Odeon Luxe cinema, Gatehouse Theatre, Ancient High House, Stafford Rangers football club, Stafford leisure centre and Victoria Park, which has the river running through it. There is a regular car boot sale on nearby Stafford Common and a monthly farmers' market in the town centre.

Buses run regularly from a stop close to the court and will take you into Stafford town centre and on to Cannock, Rugeley, Wolverhampton and Telford. Northbound buses go to Stone, Stoke and Hanley. Stafford has a train station which provides connections to the entire mainline rail network.

Our roots lie with the RoyalBritish Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the RoyalBritish Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
