Staveley Court, Staveley Road, , KEIGHLEY , BD22 7EB

Welcome

Staveley Court is located in the Ingrow area of Keighley, just a short distance from the town centre and very close to Bronte Country. The court enjoys scenic views across Ilkley Moor and the surrounding areas.

Keighley is at the heart of Bronte Country and Haworth is just a few miles away with its attractive cobbled street. Haworth also hosts an annual 1940s weekend, a Christmas Market and many events throughout the year. The Worth Valley steam train runs from Keighley town centre to Haworth and calls at a small station just two minutes' walk from the court.

Nearby amenities include a doctors surgery, pharmacy, general store, post office, butcher and hairdresser. A number of banks and larger supermarkets are within easy reach.

Buses run regularly from a stop close to the court and will take you into Keighley, then on to Leeds city centre, Bradford and Skipton. Keighley has a train station providing connections to the surrounding towns and cities.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
