

Welcome

Prince Michael of Kent Court is a friendly and welcoming development on the outskirts of Erith, Crayford and Bexleyheath, with the countryside just a short bus ride away.

The court is located on a quiet estate with a range of shops, doctors surgeries, dentists, banks, churches and cafés within easy reach. The surrounding towns have several larger supermarkets.

There is plenty for residents to do in the area, with a local park, golf course and lawn bowls nearby and pleasant countryside walks only a bus ride away. In Erith there is a theatre and leisure centre, while Bexleyheath has a bingo hall, leisure centre and tenpin bowling facility. The towns host a range of popular events throughout the year.

Buses run every 10 minutes from a stop just outside the court, offering easy access to the shops and leisure facilities of the Bluewater shopping centre as well as nearby Erith, Crayford and Bexleyheath. Sladegreen train station is a 10-minute walk or a short bus ride away and there is a convenient dial-a-ride service.

About us

Housing 21 is a leading, not for profit provider of Extra Care and Retirement Living for older people of modest means. We manage over 24, 000 properties and providing over 49, 000 hours of social care each week.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
