Kenneth Launder Court

Kenneth Launder Court, Manley Road, , LISKEARD , PL14 4EW

Welcome

Kenneth Launder Court is an attractive scheme set in a pleasant suburban location just 10 minutes' walk from the centre of the small market town of Liskeard in Cornwall.

The town has a strong sense of community and there is always plenty going on, including a summer carnival, agricultural fair, autumn fair and Christmas lantern parade.

Kenneth Launder Court is just a short walk from a bus stop which offers regular services into the town centre. Liskeard also has its own railway station which is on the London to Penzance Cornish Mainline.

The court has a communal lounge with a large widescreen TV where residents can get together to enjoy a chat or catch up on their favourite programmes. There is also a pleasant guest room and communal laundry.

About us

We are a leading provider of safe, quality and affordable properties for older people, empowering you to live independently with on-site care or support. We manage over 24,000 properties and provide over 48,000 hours of in-house care every week.

Our roots lie with the RoyalBritish Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the RoyalBritish Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
