

Welcome

Blackett Ord Court was built in 1976, offering six studios, 16 one-bedroom apartments, and one three-bedroom apartment.

The extension to Blackett-Ord Court opened its doors in early 2023 offering five one-bedroom and 12 two-bedroom apartments for rent, now totally 40 properties.

Situated in a quiet part of the small market town of Royston in Hertfordshire, the scheme is within 15 minutes' walking distance of the main rail line into London and Cambridge. The court offers residents the best of both worlds, combining the calm of life in a market town with easy access to two major cities. Blackett Ord is surrounded by attractive gardens and is just a five-minute drive from Therfield Heath and Conservation Park. With a laundry room, buggy store, lounge and an accessible lift, Blackett Ord is the perfect Retirement Living Scheme designed to allow you to live independently within a community setting. Royston has a large range of shops and leisure facilities including:

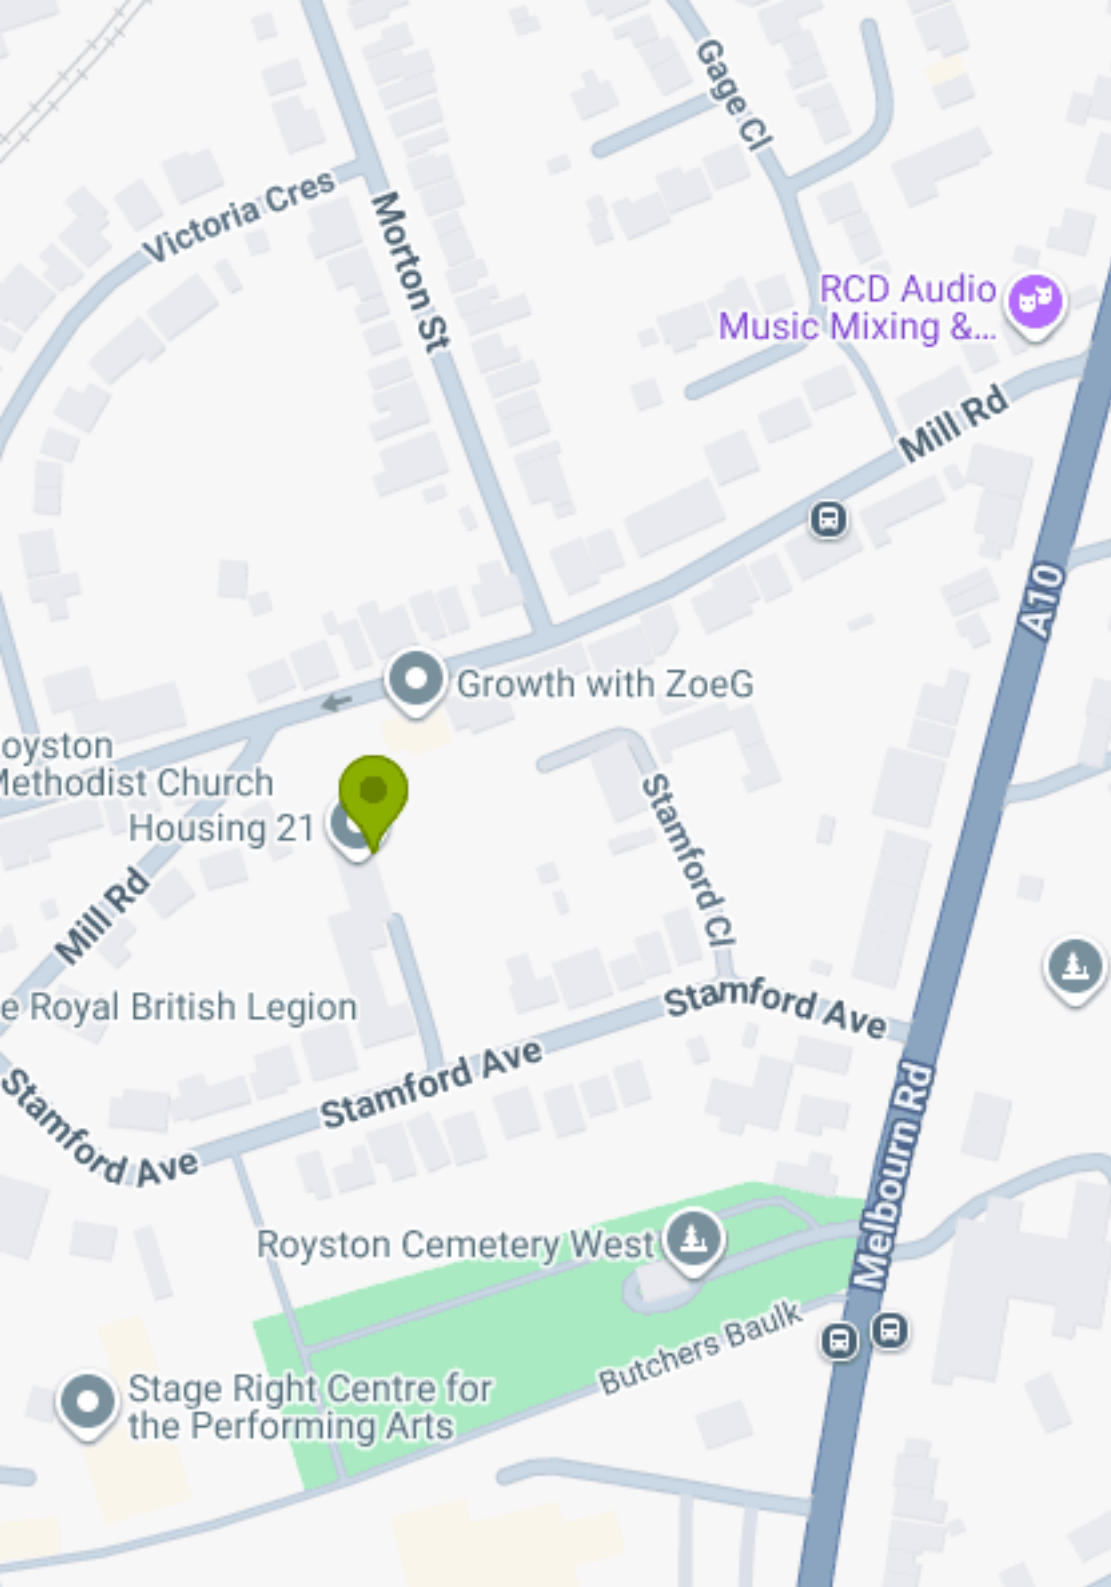

The town holds a market twice a week and a range of seasonal events take place on the heath including summer balls and charity events. There's also a local Post Office, cinemas and several GPs within walking distance. Regular buses run from a stop within walking distance of the court

About us

Housing 21 is a leading, not for profit provider of Extra Care and Retirement Living for older people of modest means. We manage over 24, 000 properties and providing over 49, 000 hours of social care each week.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
