Joseph Jennings Court

Joseph Jennings Court, Downshaw Road, , ASHTON UNDER LYNE , OL7 9PP

Welcome

Joseph Jennings Court enjoys a semi-rural location in the small village of Waterloo, near Ashton-under-Lyne in Tameside.

The court is within easy reach of the towns of Ashton and Oldham, yet is only a short walk from Daisy Nook Country Park which offers many pleasant walks through woodland and along the canal. The Park Bridge heritage site is also a short distance from the court.

There is plenty for residents to do in the local area. Ashton Moss has a cinema, bowling alley and restaurants, and there is a swimming pool at Ashton. Nearby leisure facilities include a library, art gallery and museums, including Portland Basin where restored barges can be hired for the day. Sports clubs in the area include a cricket club, athletics and cycling club, crown green bowling and Curzon Ashton football club.

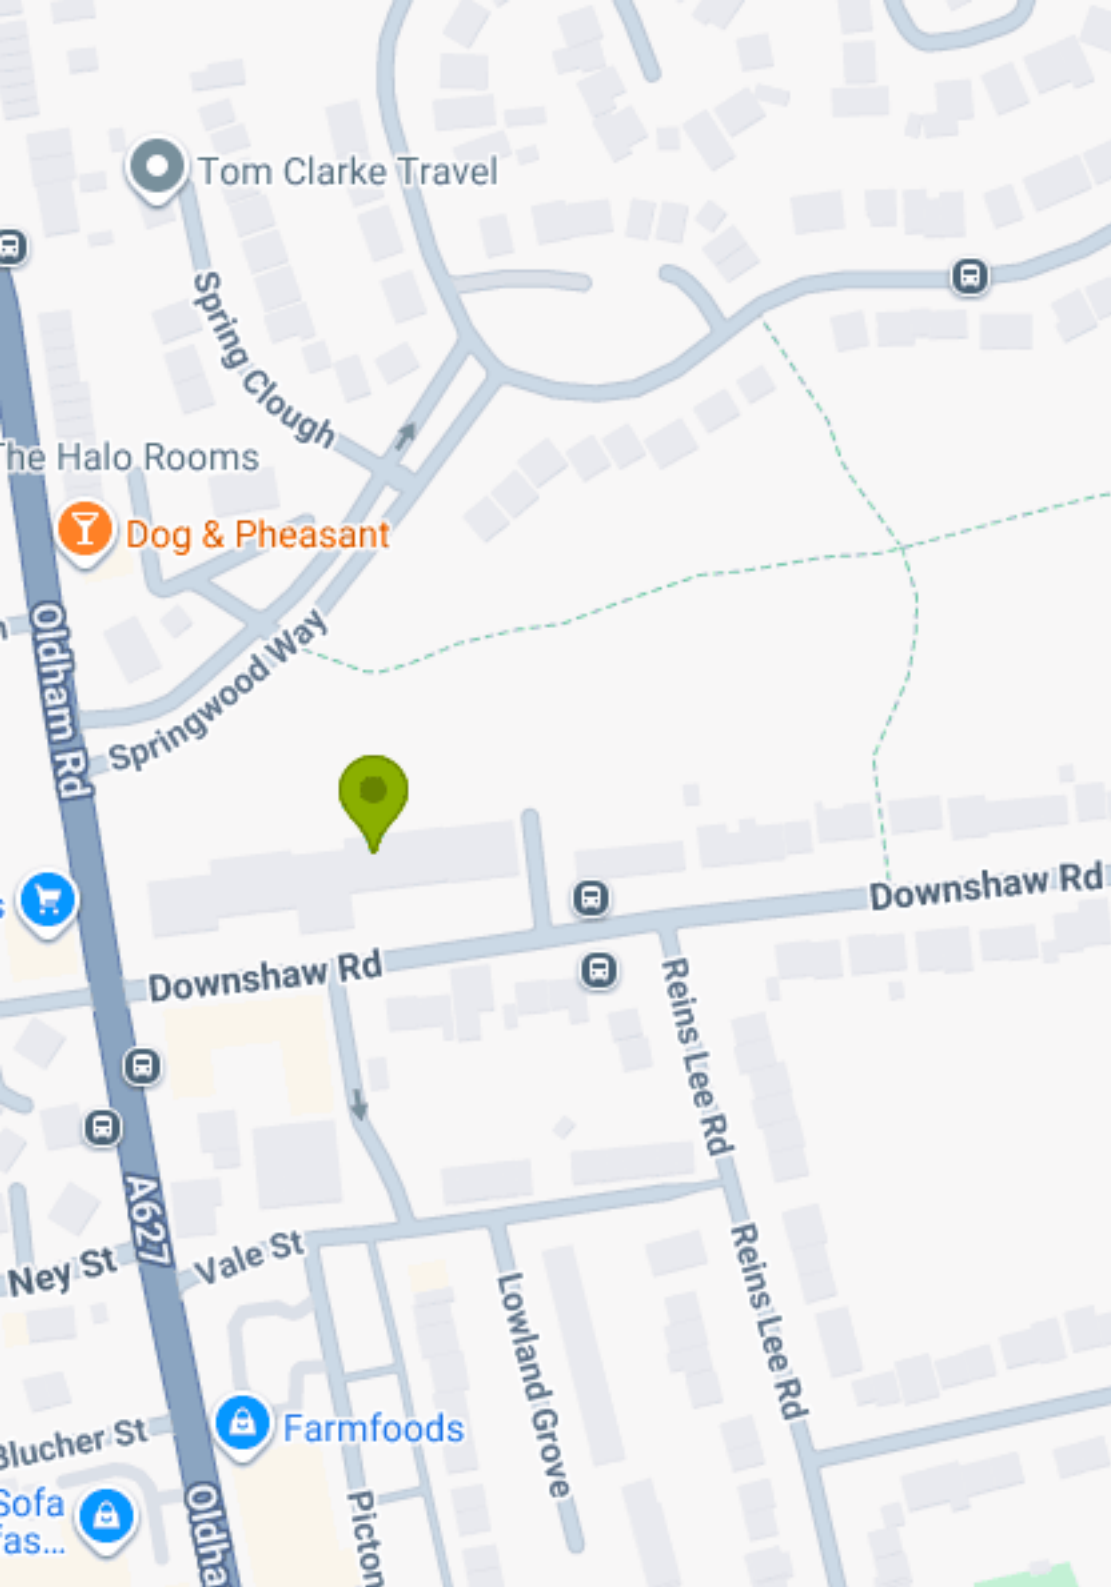

Buses run regularly into Ashton from a stop just a short distance from the court, or residents can choose to use the local ring-and-ride service. Ashton town centre has a train station and a tram stop linking it to Manchester and the surrounding area.

About us

Housing 21 is a leading, not for profit provider of Extra Care and Retirement Living for older people of modest means. We manage over 24, 000 properties and providing over 49, 000 hours of social care each week.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
