John Shoobridge Court

John Shoobridge Court, Bleke Street, , SHAFTESBURY , SP7 8QA

Welcome

John Shoobridge Court is a small retirement scheme in the attractive town of Shaftesbury in Dorset.

There are 19 studio apartments and one, two-bedroom flat.

It is close to a Post Office, doctor's surgery, dentists, opticians, banks and churches, as well as several pubs, restaurants and cafes. Residents can also visit the nearby Arts Centre, cinema, theatre and swimming pool.

Shaftesbury has a weekly market, farmers markets and annual events such as the Gold Hill Fair, Shaftesbury Carnival and a food festival. One of the town's claims to fame is that it is the location of Gold Hill, which featured in the famous advert for Hovis bread with the delivery boy on his bike. The town also enjoys wonderful views over the Blackmore Vale, which offers plenty of opportunities for walking.

About us

We are a leading provider of safe, quality and affordable properties for older people, empowering you to live independently with on-site care or support. We manage over 24,000 properties and provide over 48,000 hours of in-house care every week.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
