

Welcome

Duchess of Kent Court is a peaceful and attractive court in the pretty Royal British Legion Village in Aylesford, near Maidstone, in Kent.

The popular court enjoys a rural setting but also offers residents an active social life.

The village has a strong sense of community and locals take pride in its appearance. The attractive Memorial Gardens are being refurbished to include a bandstand, amphitheatre and various gardens at different levels to complement the existing monument. An Armistice Day service is held every year at the gardens.

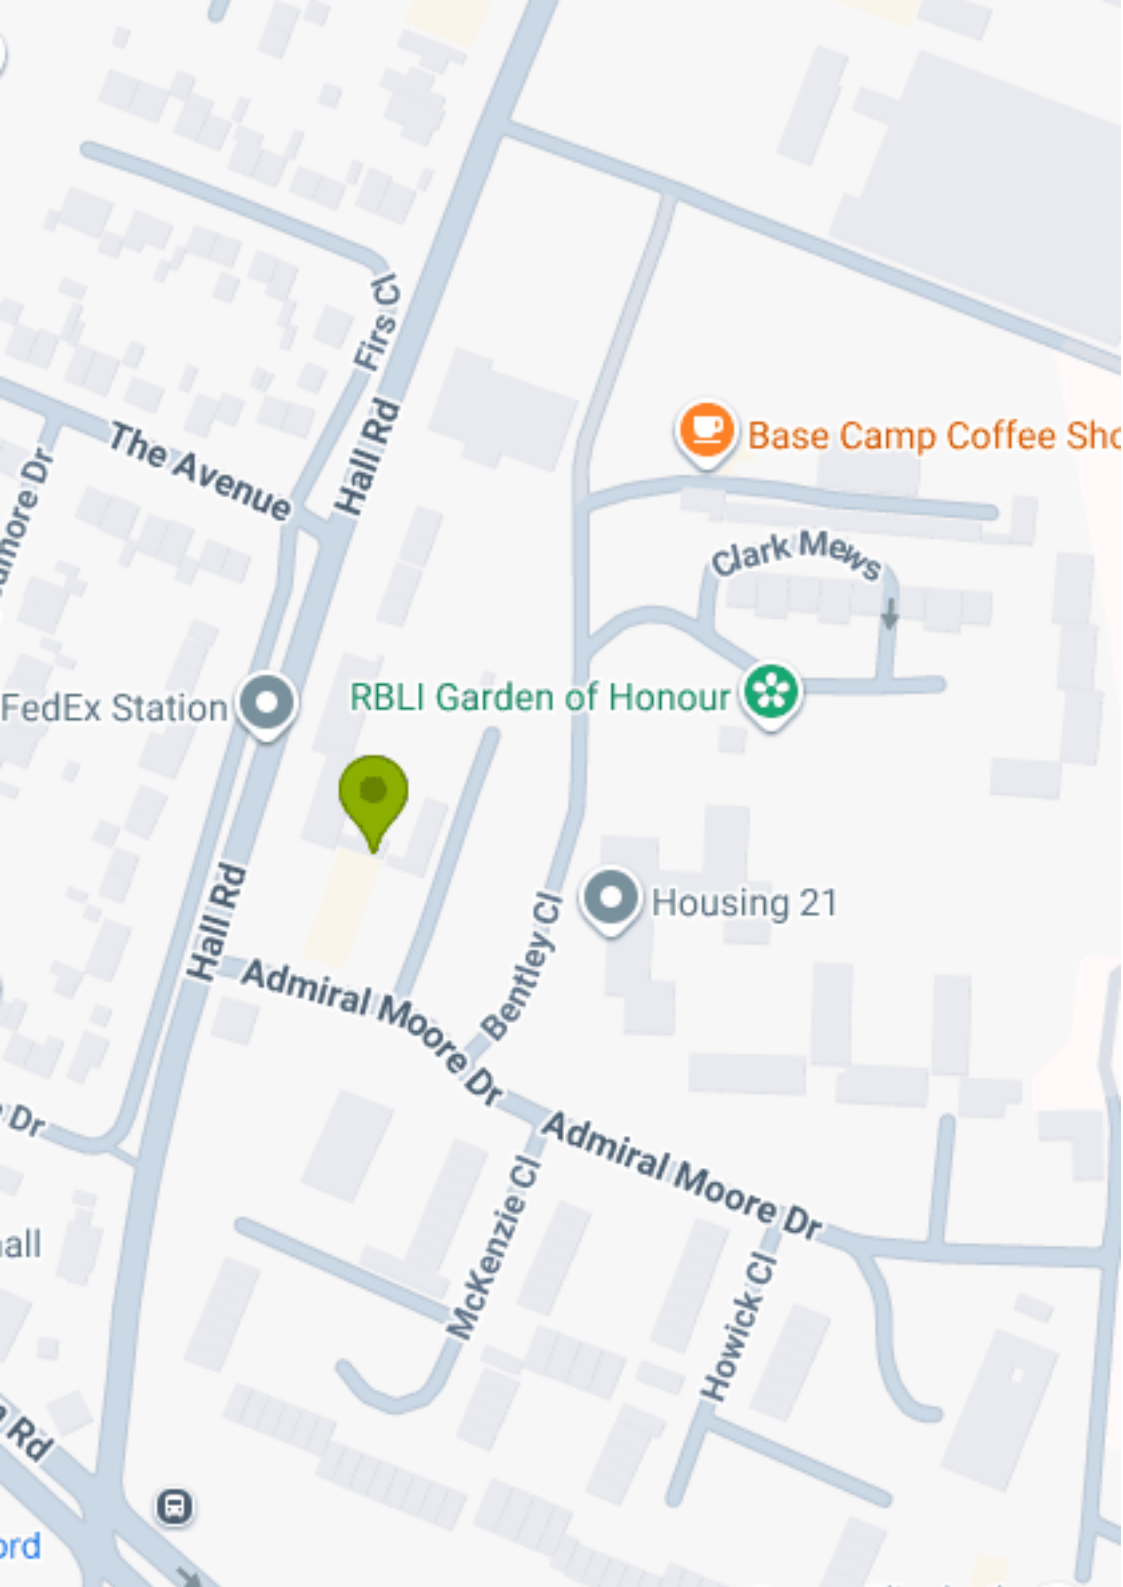

There is a Sainsbury's half a mile away, a Waitrose in Allington, one mile away, and other supermarkets including Tesco, Morrisons and Asda a short bus ride away. The nearest post office is in Maidstone town centre.

About us

Housing 21 is a leading, not for profit provider of Extra Care and Retirement Living for older people of modest means. We manage over 24, 000 properties and providing over 49, 000 hours of social care each week.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
