

Welcome

Lord Cromwell Court is a quiet and attractive development in Hednesford in Cannock, yet is just 15 minutes' walk from the town centre and the train station.

The court is close to a wide range of local amenities and is also within easy reach of Cannock Chase, a designated Area of Natural Beauty which offers many pleasant walks and scenery.

Hednesford has a range of local shops, cafés, banks, supermarkets, a Post Office, doctors surgery and a bingo hall, while nearby Cannock has a wider range of shops and leisure facilities. The town holds a regular market and has a range of high street stores, independent shops, cafés, pubs, restaurants, and shopping centres. It also has a leisure centre with swimming pool, a cinema and an ice rink.

Buses run every 15 minutes from a stop close to the court and will take you into Hednesford, Cannock or Chads Moor. Hednesford has its own train station which provides services to the surrounding towns and villages.

About us

Housing 21 is a leading, not for profit provider of Extra Care and Retirement Living for older people of modest means. We manage over 24, 000 properties and providing over 49, 000 hours of social care each week.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
