

Welcome

Thomas Place is a sociable development very close to the bustling market town of Maidstone in Kent.

Thomas Place has a range of on-site facilities for residents including a spacious communal lounge with kitchenette, restaurant, laundry, en-suite guest room for friends and family to stay, assisted bathing facility, buggy store and two lifts.

The court is conveniently situated, with all local amenities available on foot or by bus. Next door you can find a well-stocked library, and a number of local eateries and pubs are within easy walking distance.

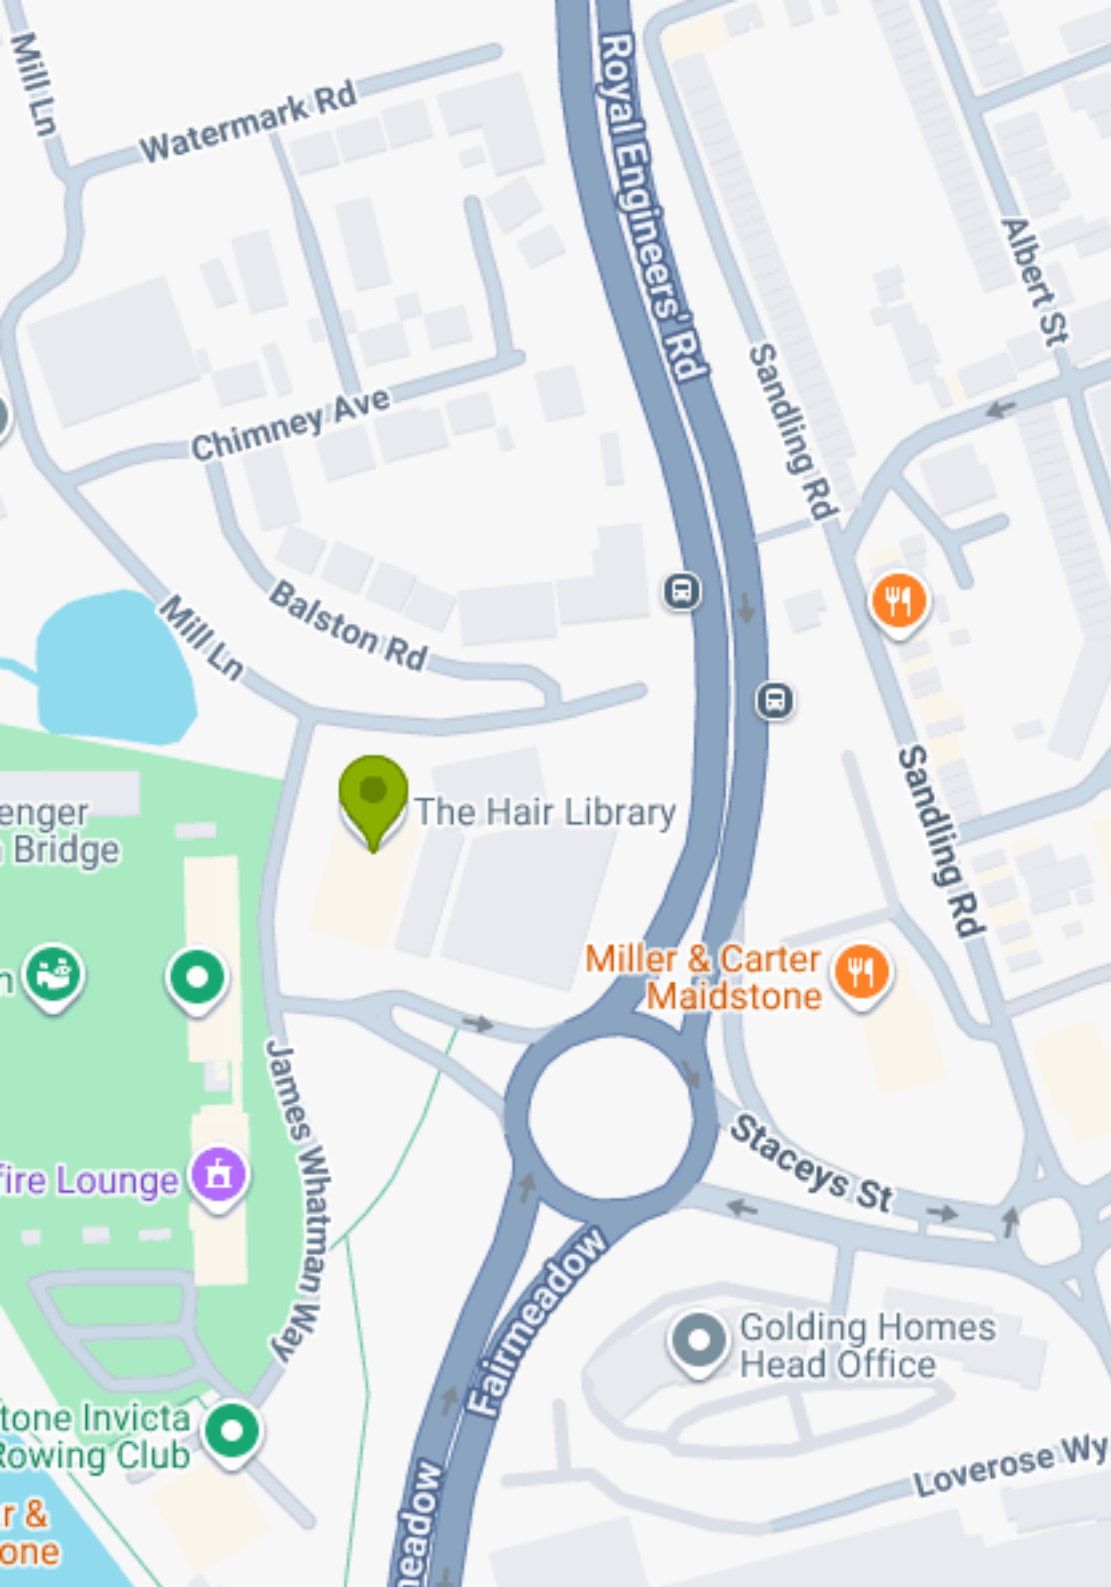

The popular town has a strong sense of community and there are a number of beautiful parks, green spaces and gardens within a short walk of the court including Brenchley Gardens, Mote Park and Maidstone Millenium River Park.

About us

Housing 21 is a leading, not for profit provider of Extra Care and Retirement Living for older people of modest means. We manage over 24, 000 properties and providing over 49, 000 hours of social care each week.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
