

Welcome

Robert Wheatman Court in Grangetown, Sunderland, is set within attractive gardens in a quiet area, a short trip from Seaburn sea front.

Sunderland city centre is four miles away and is well served by public transport, with more shops, amenities and attractions, including cinemas, theatres and the National Glass Centre.

The coastal town of Seaburn is eight miles from Robert Wheatman Court. It is home to a sandy beach, seaside promenades, children's playgrounds and fish and chip shops. There is also a range of restaurants, pubs and coffee shops.

The court is surrounded by well-tended gardens, which the residents are welcome to help look after. There are a number of pleasant seating areas around the grounds. Inside, the court has a communal lounge, a well stocked library, a hairdresser, laundry, guestroom and lift.

About us

Housing 21 is a leading, not for profit provider of Extra Care and Retirement Living for older people of modest means. We manage over 24, 000 properties and providing over 49, 000 hours of social care each week.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
