

Welcome

Robert Smith Court is a welcoming scheme in a quiet residential area in Stalham in Norfolk. Stalham is a good centre for exploring the Norfolk Broads and is only 4 miles away from the nearest sandy beach. It is a typical country town with a High Street containing a range of shops and other facilities. Stalham is also home to a nearby Tesco supermarket and petrol station.

Stalham is a major boating centre and many boating holidays start from here. There are various day boats available for hire. The Staithe at Stalham is also home to the Museum of the Broads.

Seven miles north of Stalham is the market town of North Walsham where a train can be boarded for the Norwich to Cromer line.

This friendly scheme has a social fund and treasurer for events on the court and there are a wide range of activities available for residents to enjoy as they choose; regulars include breakfast club, afternoon teas, fish and chip lunches, darts, knit and natter and craft afternoons.

About us

Housing 21 is a leading, not for profit provider of Extra Care and Retirement Living for older people of modest means. We manage over 24, 000 properties and providing over 49, 000 hours of social care each week.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
