Welcome

Corcoran Court is situated in the town of Heywood in Lancashire, between the larger towns of Rochdale and Bury. The court offers residents a friendly atmosphere with everything they need on their doorstep.

A regular market is nearby and there is a newly built sports centre just opposite the court. There are three pubs within walking distance, all serving food, and a number of churches. Heywood holds a popular charity fete and parade through the town each September.

Queens Park is just 10 minutes' walk away and was voted 'best park in Britain' a few years ago. The Roch Valley Way nature reserve is a few minutes away and offers many pleasant walks. The East Lancashire Railway Centre is a five minute car ride away and runs weekly steam trains and holds special events throughout the year.

Buses run every 10 minutes from a stop just five minutes' walk from the court. Manchester city centre is half an hour's drive or 40 minutes away by bus while Bury and Rochdale are both a short bus ride away. The area has a ring-and-ride service which residents can use and there are a number of reliable taxi firms offering fixed rates for trips to hospitals, the airport and other town centres.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
