

Welcome

Leonard Houlden Court enjoys a peaceful and relaxing setting, yet is just a short distance from the range of amenities offered by the lively town of Taunton in Somerset.

Local amenities include a doctor's surgery and two churches within 10 minutes' walk from the court. Taunton also has a leisure centre, theatre and cinema and a wealth of shops, pubs, cafés and restaurants.

The nearby parade of shops caters for everyday needs with a supermarket, post office, bakers, chemist and charity shop. There are several larger supermarkets slightly further afield.

The centre of Taunton is just 10 minutes away by bus, or you can walk along the canal in half an hour. Buses run every 15 minutes into the centre of town or to the train station which provides connections to the wider area. Residents may also choose to use the local community transport and reliable taxi companies.

About us

Housing 21 is a leading, not for profit provider of Extra Care and Retirement Living for older people of modest means. We manage over 24, 000 properties and providing over 49, 000 hours of social care each week.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
