

Welcome

Treasure Court is a friendly scheme in an attractive location in Burnham-on-Sea, a small seaside town close to the popular holiday destination of Weston-super-Mare.

The area is busy with a lively community spirit, and there is always something going on in the town. The beach and pier are popular tourist attractions and are both just a short distance from the court.

There are plenty of markets and local festivals for residents to enjoy, while the community centre runs a wide range of social events. There is a leisure centre and swimming pool just a few hundred yards from the court, as well as a cinema, theatre and several social clubs.

Buses run every half an hour from a stop opposite the court and will take you into Bridgwater, Weston-super-Mare and Taunton. Residents also use the reliable community transport and nearby taxi services to get around. The nearest train station is in Highbridge and provides connections to the wider region.
