

Welcome

Lawrance Court is a friendly scheme situated in a quiet area of Southill on the outskirts of Weymouth, near the popular Dorset coast. Southill has a good range of local shops which are all within walking distance of the court, including a supermarket, mobility shop, fish and chip shop, takeaway and hairdresser. A church at the end of the road runs a weekly lunch club.

The popular seaside resort has many shops, cafés and restaurants. It boasts a Georgian seafront, sandy beaches and views across the World Heritage Jurassic Coast. Local taxis offer special rates from the court to the town centre and a local supermarket runs a free bus service twice a week.

Lawrance Court has a range of on-site facilities, including a communal kitchen, guest room, laundry and Car park. The welcoming lounge is well used during the day by residents who want to sit and chat or catch up on their favourite TV programmes. The court is surrounded by attractive gardens. Green-fingered residents are encouraged to look after the flowerpots if they choose, ensuring the court enjoys colour all year round. The area is rural and can be hilly, so potential residents should be aware that it is not suitable for scooters.

About us

Housing 21 is a leading, not for profit provider of Extra Care and Retirement Living for older people of modest means. We manage over 24, 000 properties and providing over 49, 000 hours of social care each week.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
