Alice Bye Court

Alice Bye Court, Bluecoats, , THATCHAM , RG18 4AE

Welcome

Alice Bye Court is a welcoming community near the centre of Thatcham, West Berkshire.

The court offers a range of facilities, including its own restaurant offering home cooked food, a communal lounge and laundry, as well as a guest room and a quiet room that opens onto one of the main gardens. The other garden is next to the restaurant and has an attractive patio, as well as raised beds where residents can choose to get involved with growing their own fruit, vegetables and flowers.

Regular buses run to surrounding villages and the larger towns of Reading and Newbury, which offer a wealth of shopping and leisure facilities. Residents can choose to explore further on coach tours which conveniently pick up from Thatcham. Thatcham train station is a 10 minute walk away, providing links to the rest of the country, and there are several friendly taxi services in the area. A Tesco Express store is a five minute drive away, and Thatcham holds a thriving market every Friday.

Residents can take advantage of a leisure centre within easy driving distance, as well as a nearby wildlife discovery centre and several pleasant open spaces with facilities for children and dog walking.

About us

Housing 21 is a leading, not for profit provider of Extra Care and Retirement Living for older people of modest means. We manage over 24, 000 properties and providing over 49, 000 hours of social care each week.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
