

Welcome

Cohen Court, in the pleasant Glebe area of Stockton, is a lively and social development which recently won Housing 21's Live Active Award.

The Glebe is a much sought-after area of the town and is peaceful and quiet yet enjoys a good range of local amenities.

Stockton town centre is three miles away and hosts a varied calendar of events including a weekly market, fireworks displays and festivals. The town has a wider range of shops, pubs, cafés, restaurants and leisure facilities.

The court is well connected with the local area having excellent transport links. A frequent bus service runs every day into Stockton and Middlesbrough from a bus stop just two minutes' walk from the court. There is also a reliable taxi service which many residents use to take them into town, shopping or to visit friends and there is a train station a short drive away.

About us

Housing 21 is a leading, not for profit provider of Extra Care and Retirement Living for older people of modest means. We manage over 24, 000 properties and providing over 49, 000 hours of social care each week.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
