Douglas Yates Court

Douglas Yates Court, Coleford, RADSTOCK, BA3 5PD

Welcome

Douglas Yates Court offers older people independent living in a supportive environment situated in beautiful countryside at the heart of the Mendip Hills in Coleford, Somerset.

The court comprises 34 flats, all with views over the beautiful surrounding countryside. It has a resident's lounge for social activities, a well-equipped laundry room and a guest room for use by visiting family and friends. The court is set in attractive gardens which are well tended, with residents welcome to get involved.

There is a court manager on hand to provide help and support to residents, and the flats are equipped with emergency alarms and a door entry system for security.

The village of Coleford is home to several clubs and organisations, including a community café which takes place at Douglas Yates Court.

About us

We are a leading provider of safe, quality and affordable properties for older people, empowering you to live independently with on-site care or support. We manage over 24,000 properties and provide over 48,000 hours of in-house care every week.

Our roots lie with the RoyalBritish Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the RoyalBritish Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
