Bleriot Court

Bleriot Court, Roosevelt Road, Dover, KENT , CT16 2FE

Welcome

Located in a beautiful part of the country, near to the coast, Bleriot Court in Dover has apartments for independent living in close proximity to Buckland Court. Ideally placed for independent living, Bleriot Court benefits from a range of conveniences within easy access, including the town centre, which is approximately two miles away. Doctors, dentists, banks and other shops and facilities can be found here. Bleriot Court is within walking distance is a local newsagent, and about ten minutes' walk is a post office.

Bleriot Court consists of independent living apartments without communal facilities, but residents are freely able to use the communal facilities, including a restaurant at next door Buckland Court. Bleriot Court apartments look out into a courtyard with raised flower beds, and residents are welcome to garden here.

Buckland Court also has beautifully maintained gardens that residents are welcome to use.

About us

We are a leading provider of safe, quality and affordable properties for older people, empowering you to live independently with on-site care or support. We manage over 24,000 properties and provide over 48,000 hours of in-house care every week.

Our roots lie with the Royal British Legion (RBL), which in 1921 began to house disabled ex-servicemen and widows and, later, older ex-servicemen and women. In 1964, we became a recognised housing association before separating from the Royal British Legion in 1993 to become Housing 21.
